Capt. S. R. Johnston, who has been quite unwell, is able to be out on the streets again.
School Commissioner Milling has sent out blank reports to determine the grade of each scholar.

Mrs. J. G. Mobley will live in town until her house is rebuilt which was burned some time ago.
The members of the local board of control were in town on Monday to hear about the dispensary matter.
When you want to buy matting you can find them at Minnaugh's store.

adv. Q. D. WILLIFORD, Manager.
Miss Sallie Hayne McMeekin, who is suffering with rheumatism, is not improving very fast, we are sorry to learn.
We are informed that Mr. M. H. Mobley made the closest settlement with Mr. Traxler of any county dispenser in the State.

We hear that Mr. R. M. Dunlevy will return to Winnsboro to live. Mr. Dunlevy was a good citizen and we shall welcome him back.
There was a boxing match between Jack McMillan and a Chester darkey, by the name of Brown Colvin, on Thursday night. The Chester Coon got the best of it.

Another lot of hats, ribbons, flowers and other goods just received by express. Come, ladies, and be suited at J. O. BOAG'S, adv.
There will be a literary and musical entertainment Friday night at Mt. Zion under the management of the ladies of the Presbyterian Church. Admission 10 cents.

We see by the A. R. P. Presbyterian that Miss T. C. Elliott was appointed on the affirmative in the debate: "Resolved that the ideal is more effective than real in romance in poetry."
The Council met and elected W. B. Gilbert chief of police, R. N. McMaster assistant. Chief of fire department, T. K. Elliott. The market was rated to Samuel Cathcart and S. B. Crawford.

The School Commissioner has been on a tour of inspection to District No. 3. Point Lookout school, taught by Miss L. S. Culpe, and Wateree school taught by Mr. W. A. Douglass, both show signs of progress.
Capt. Jordan has requested us to ask all members of the G. L. I. to bring to the armory any uniforms or parts of uniforms, belts, bayonets, scabbards, helmets or leggings or anything pertaining to a uniform.

What do you want to plant? McMaster & Co. say they have everything in that line. Do you want to see? They say they have lamps that will enable a blind man to see. And fly paper? Oh, yes, those flies. Go and look for yourself.
Mr. M. H. Mobley, the county dispenser, received a telegram from Mr. Traxler to "close the dispensary here until further orders." So the one X will have to be supplanted by the one for a while at least. No surprise to Mr. Mobley though—he had closed up once before.

The express company has, since the decision of the Supreme Court, issued a general circular to the agent here, and at all other points, that they will ship beer or whiskey, out of the state or into it; that is to say they will do business as was done before the enactment of the dispensary law.

Mr. M. H. Mobley, the county dispenser, returned from Columbia on Monday evening and says the bar-rooms have opened up in full blast, that there was no penalty for selling whiskey in South Carolina. But says he don't know what may be done.

We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of J. M. Beaty & Bro. in this issue. They are prepared to fit you up in dry goods and groceries. The firm needs no introduction in Fairfield county. They have been established at the "Corner Store" so long that we can say nothing by way of introduction. Read their "ad." for yourself.

Mr. J. G. Halliburton will start to a point on a new railroad between Baltimore and Washington in a few days. He has gone to Orangeburg to get his gang of hands, tools, stock, &c. Mrs. Halliburton and her brother, Marvin Gladden, will accompany him. He will carry about thirty-five negroes along with him. It is quite a big contract we understand.

T. F. Anthony, Ex-Postmaster, of Promise City, Iowa, says: "I bought one bottle of 'Mytic Cure' for Rheumatism and two doses of it did me more good than all the medicine I ever took." Sold by W. E. Aiken, Druggist, Winnsboro.

THE FAIRFIELD RIFLE GUARDS.—This company was organized about 18 months ago and elected Mr. T. M. Jordan Captain. They had a reorganization last week, and will apply for arms as they were not furnished before, owing to the quota of the country being taken up already. We suppose they will get arms now. H. L. FARLEY, Adjutant General.
MRS. M. L. SIMMS.

Mr. D. E. McDowell got a telegram on Thursday announcing the death of his aunt Mrs. M. L. Simms. She died in Columbia at 6 o'clock. She had been in bad health for a number of years. Her husband, Mr. Pink Simms, of Union preceded her to the grave a good many years ago. The remains were sent to Alston and taken to Long Run Church, where they were laid to rest on Thursday. Mrs. Simms left no children, but a large number of relatives who will mourn her loss. Messrs. S. C. and D. E. McDowell attended the funeral. It is only a few weeks since Mrs. McDowell, sister of Mrs. Simms, passed from the scene of this life.

THE I. O. G. T.
The Independent Order of Good Templars held its regular monthly meeting on Tuesday night. They are in a thriving condition, taking in new members now and again. They had an accession to the order at that meeting.

An interesting program is arranged for every meeting, consisting of music and reading. This feature makes the meetings lively and inviting; it does away with the dull, monotonous "routine business." No life can be kept up in an organization upon routine business, and the officers realizing this, have added the above pleasure feature.

The musical part of the program was participated in by Misses Withers, Sharpe and Jennings, and Mr. Sent McCarley. Rev. C. E. McDougal and Messrs. W. H. Fenniken and Wm. J. Roche read several pieces, which was very much enjoyed by all. The former officers were all re-elected and will be installed on the first Tuesday in May. The treasurer was instructed to pay the hall rent. The meeting then adjourned.

WOODWARD NEWS.

WOODWARD, S. C., April 21.—The installation of Rev. M. B. Kirkpatrick took place in Concord Church on last Sunday in the presence of a large congregation. Mr. Thornehill, of Fort Mifflin, delivered the charges both to the pastor and people. These charges were lengthy and exceedingly appropriate. Communion services were also held.

This section was visited on Thursday night by a fine rain and again late yesterday afternoon.

Most of our farmers have finished planting cotton and are now turning their attention to the working of their corn.

We are glad to report that Mr. A. J. Boyd, of whom mention was made in my last communication as being quite sick with pneumonia, has almost entirely recovered. We are also much pleased to say that Mrs. Nicholson is gradually improving, though she is still unable to sit up. She has been strictly confined to bed for about five months.

ITEMS FROM WOLLING.

WOLLING, S. C., April 20.—There is a dearth of news in this section. We are a laboring people and have no time for gossip. Generally speaking the farmers are getting along very well with their work. Small grain seems to be recovering from the late cold snap and promises a fair crop.

Gen. Edward Taylor is very sick with pneumonia brought on by a severe attack of grip. His son, John Taylor, who was a gallant confederate soldier lies critically ill with cancer of the face.

Our church, Cool Branch Baptist, has recently been beautified and improved by a new coat of paint on the inside, curtains for the pulpit windows, and a new set of pews, at a cost of about $103, all of which has been paid. This has done principally by the efforts of the noble women of the congregation. Aunt Linn Leg assisted by a noble corps of good beggars (no harm in the name) despite the grumbling of "The late to give" and "hard times" grumblers accompanied by work, and our church stands today a living monument to the Christian spirit that pervades our peaceful and hospitable community. Rev. D. A. Swindler administers to the spiritual wants of our people in a very acceptable manner. Capt. R. F. Legg is a veteran in Sunday School work. Twenty-five years ago he organized from chaos a Sunday school, and every Sunday, D. V. permitting, he is found at his post, and the result of his work is one of the best attended Sunday schools in the country, and the greatest blessing that has ever been bestowed on our community. # THE REPUBLICANS ARE AROUSED.

They will make a Bold Stroke for Carolina Columbia, S. C., April 18.—Special. The action of the Legislature in 1890 providing to submit to a popular vote the question of holding a constitutional convention has aroused the Republicans. A circular letter signed by Ellery M. Brayton, member of the National Republican Committee, is being distributed all over the State. The letter calls on all Republicans to register at once, declaring that the next election will be one of vast opportunities to the Republicans, "that the hostility" and "disregard among Democrats" affords the Republicans a "valuable opportunity" to exercise their political rights, and that Republicans are "remiss in not registering at once, declaring that the next election will be one of vast
